

HELLO!

NUMBER 1124 • 24 MAY 2010 • £2.00

EXCLUSIVE

DAVID AND SAMANTHA CAMERON

AN INTIMATE LOOK BEHIND CLOSED DOORS

HELLO! MAGAZINE IS A MEMBER OF THE HELLO! MEDIA GROUP. HELLO! MEDIA GROUP IS A DIVISION OF HELLO! MEDIA GROUP LTD. HELLO! MEDIA GROUP LTD IS A COMPANY INCORPORATED IN THE UNITED KINGDOM. HELLO! MEDIA GROUP LTD IS A COMPANY INCORPORATED IN THE UNITED KINGDOM. HELLO! MEDIA GROUP LTD IS A COMPANY INCORPORATED IN THE UNITED KINGDOM.

hellomagazine.com

A HISTORIC WEEK OF POLITICS AND PARTIES

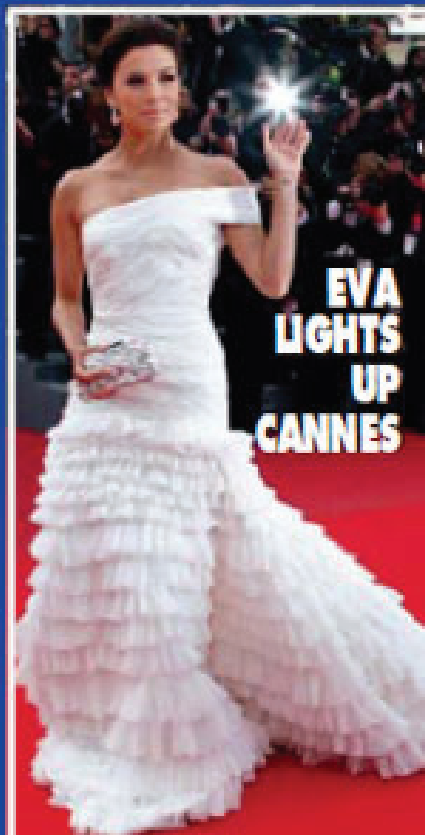

'PRINCE ANDREW AND ME' GOGA AT HOME

MYLEENE'S CLASSIC STYLE

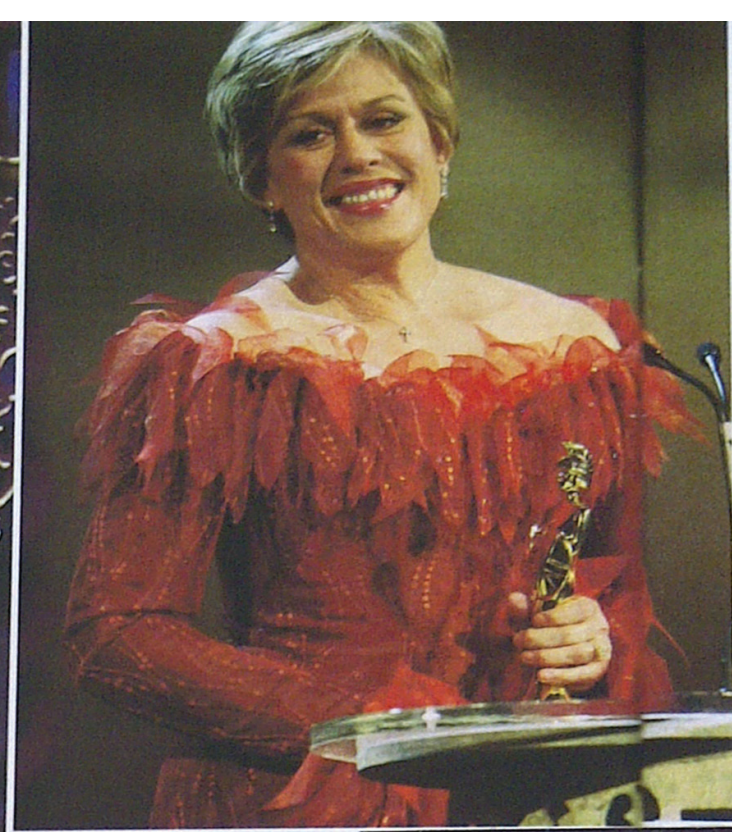

QUEEN RANIA AND UMA'S STARRY NIGHT

EVA LIGHTS UP CANNES

MYLEENE KASS DAZZLES AT THE CLASSICAL BRITS
AN EVENING OF HIGH-OCTAVE
GLAMOUR, GOWNS
AND GOLDEN STATUETTES

Myleene Klass may describe herself as a "distinctly average" girl from Norfolk, but she looked far from that as she hosted the Classical Brit Awards at London's Royal Albert Hall.

The TV presenter dazzled in two stunning outfits, arriving at the ceremony in a £5,000 bright yellow gown by Australian designer Joe Challita before changing into a white feathered gown by London label Quintana Couture.

"My daughter Ava is loving every minute here," Myleene told HELLO! Before the ceremony, which the 32-year-old, who trained at the Guildhall School of Music, was hosting for the third year, she was spotted, hair in rollers, playing with her three-year-old. "She tried on the jewellery before me in the dressing room."

WINNERS OF NOTE

The glittering evening saw the presentation of a Lifetime Achievement in Music Award to Dame Kiri Te Kanawa. The New Zealand-born legendary soprano, a favourite of Prince Charles, collected her award from actor Jeremy Irons. She said of her career: "It has been an achievement and it's taken a lifetime."

Other winners included Romanian soprano Angela Gheorghiu, named Female Artist of the Year. Male choir Only Men Aloud received the Best Album gong for Band of Brothers, beating off rivals including Benedict XVI, whose voice features on Alma Mater - Music from the Vatican.

Young Britain's Got Talent star Faryl Smith, elegant in a ▶

HELLO!